Dear Mr. Walczak, David J.:

Thanks for your instructions kindly let us knew to file petition to revive our abandoned case, when we called you in July, for knowing that our delayed payment of issue fee and publication fee for our case was misguided by a "wrong" date notice.

Since the office of petition informed (dated 27 September 2005) us that we still have to amend the drawings as required, we guess it may be the Figs. 1 and 2 of this case should be labeled "prior arts" and "replacement sheet", and the Figs. 8, 9 and 10 are crowded in the same sheet, we have to replace the sheet as Figs. 8 and 9 still in one sheet, and the Fig. 10 in another sheet alone. Because we only received a "wrong" date notice to pay the required fees, we did not know that the drawing had to be amended in the same time, so we only replace the drawings as we know how to improve it. We need to know whether these amended drawings can meet your requirements? If not, please let us know more details.

Enclosed with these amended drawings for your reference, and we shall call you as soon as we could.

Best regards,

Sincerely Yours,
Hwang, Ming
